Dear Vacancy Committee,

Our county would benefit extremely from the appointment of Janelle Rettig as interim Johnson County Supervisor. Janelle has demonstrated a solid commitment, working tirelessly for almost two decades, for the betterment of our community. She seeks all perspectives, actively listens, communicates openly and honestly, and is always accountable. Janelle has been instrumental in a broad range of policies and issues including: human and civil rights, conservation, land use, bike trails, our local airport, and fiscally responsible government, all with open and honest practices. Her efforts have positively shaped Johnson County to be the shining star in Iowa for us now, as well as for generations to come. Janelle Rettig is informed, involved and remarkably qualified to be appointed to the Board of Supervisors. All residents of Johnson County have benefited from her previous efforts and it is time she have an official place on the Board of Supervisors to enact even more positive issues.

Sincerely,
Dawn & Jen BarbouRoske
